Very Important Notice

As public health policies in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic may change due to fluctuating conditions applicants are requested to take into consideration that new developments may necessitate revisions of the application procedure and the implementation of the program. We will promptly inform our partner schools of any changes.

Application Procedure

Required documents must be submitted electronically, preferably as a PDF file, to josai-exch@jiu.ac.jp by no later than April 11, 2022 (no hard copies necessary).

The documents must be sent by the staff of the applicant’s university. We are unable to accept documents directly from applicants.

Required Documents:

- Completed application form
- Recommendation letters from two instructors of the student’s home university
- Application essay
- Transcript of academic records from the student’s home university
- Considering various restrictions caused by the pandemic
  - we will provisionally accept application forms without endorsement by an authorized person of the applicant’s university
  - we will also provisionally accept letters of recommendation without the signature of instructor

2022 Josai Central European Scholarship Program: Terms and Conditions

- we may ask the applicants to submit properly signed documents at a later date

(Notes)

- Our mail system will not accept files larger than 10MB (depending on how your mail is routed, smaller files may also be rejected before reaching us). We advise you to kindly send each application separately, to compress files before attaching, and/or to use an outside storage system.
- We have noticed several cases where the scanning process was not properly executed. Please recheck the result of the scan before sending it.

Selection Procedure

(1). Vetting of application by Josai and Josai International University (April/May).

We ask the applicants to express their commitment to hard work and to use this opportunity to enhance their future career possibilities. Also, we hope that they will work in some capacity as a bridge of goodwill between the two countries in the future. Other various factors, such as field of study, language ability, the balance of the number of students among the home universities of applicants, etc. may be considered.

(2). Students will receive the result of selection from Josai via their home university (late May).

Students should then contact the Center for International Education of the university they are assigned to (e-mail address will be included in the notice of selection).

(3). Students to arrive in Japan (September).
