Your Studies

To become an exchange student you need to be officially nominated by your home university and cannot apply directly to PKU. Please contact the International Office at your home university if you wish to study at PKU as an exchange student.

Peking University offers Chinese language training courses and undergraduate courses, allowing university-wide exchange students to choose courses across schools/departments. Regular graduate courses are taught in Chinese, and the availability of such courses depends on the schools/departments' permission. English-taught graduate courses are not open, as such courses belong to special Master programs (MBA, Master in International Relations, Master in Public Policy, LLM in Chinese Law, Yenching Academy, etc.).

What courses can I take?

If you are not proficient in Chinese, you may choose one from the following two options:

- ① Enrolled in the School of Chinese as a Second Language (SCSL) to mainly study Chinese. At the same time, you are also permitted to take English-taught subject courses of no more than 6 credits in total each semester at other schools/departments if the courses and quotas are available.
- ② Relinquish SCSL's Chinese language courses and only take English-taught subject courses at other schools/departments.

If you are proficient in Chinese, you can apply to take subject courses (Chinese-taught /English-taught) at other schools/departments.

How am I to test my Chinese language proficiency?

If you are not native Chinese speaker, you may test your Chinese language proficiency either by sitting in the HSK exam (Level 6) or by trying PKU MOOC Chinese-taught courses online at <http://mooc.pku.edu.cn/mooc/>.

How am I graded?

You will receive an official transcript approximately two months after you completed exchange at PKU. Please consult your home university concerning the credit transfer.

The PKU undergraduate grading system is as follows:

EXPERIENCING CHINA

Cultural Activities

As a Chinese saying goes, "he who travels far knows much" (读万卷书, 行万里路). China is one of the world's four great civilizations. It is majestic and grand, boasting a long history, a vast geographical area, and diversified cultures of 56 nationalities. Peking University provides international students with opportunities to visit Chinese cities and towns and to experience Chinese culture and local people's way of life.

The Chinese opera was the most unique and something I haven't seen in my previous visits to China.

Student from Canada

The Shandong trip was a very joyful experience with international friends together discovering the ancient history of China.

Julio from Mexico

The trip to the Forbidden City with PKU was one of the first I did in Beijing. It was highly interesting to learn so much about Beijing's and China's history. The city itself is very beautiful and teaches you a lot about historical architecture... Especially as the trip was planned for the very beginning of the semester it was a great opportunity to get to know other students from all around the world.

Ferdinand from Germany

这次的旅游去的地方之中, 给我留下了深刻的印象的地方是嫁吐蕃的文成公主告别唐的日月山日亭、从车窗看到的青海湖的蓝色和油菜花的黄色的对比、彩色鲜明的七彩丹霞地质公园、陷入“这里是埃及?”的错觉的敦煌鸣沙山... 正在进行开发的西部, 我感到过去只听过地方的名字, 只有模糊的印象的地方, 亲眼看风景和亲身感到那个地方的空气是很重要的事。

Reika from Japan

当黄山爬完的时候，第四天我们游览宏村古村落和西递古村落……最后两天我们去了南京，我很高兴因为我可以学习中国的历史……我们去过两个不一样的博物馆，所以现在我知道很多中国的历史。

Nadia from Belgium

Our trip started in the best of the ways, and got so exciting. Thank you PKU for all the effort you put in helping us learn and have a great time in China.

Chiara from Italy

我们在西安去很多地方，它们都很有意思，但是对我来说最有意思的东西是西安的兵马俑……我觉得它们做的非常厉害，因为每个兵马俑的人都不一样……这一个星期后回到北京让我感觉有点儿难过，在这个活动看到那么多很有意思的地方，让我认识很多很好的不一样国家的人。
